LEARNING PLAN

Training activities

Type of activity	Hours	% On site
TA2.- Practical classes	21	100
TA3.- Individual and group work	30	10
TA5.- Individual student work	24	0

Teaching methods

There is a combination of different methodologies used on the course:

• Learning by receiving: The participant will receive information in lectures and in reduced groups which they will have to study, discuss and apply.

• Learning by doing: Giving presentations, participating in meetings and negotiations. Most homework will be relevant to work done in class so preparation outside will be directly connected to subsequent practice.

• Learning by using tested models

EVALUATION

Evaluation system

The evaluation of the subject in its standard format will consist of three broad lines:

In class: 40 %

&#8226; Group Presentation 20%

&#8226; Individual Journals & Participation 20%

Out of class: 30 %

&#8226; Forum Entries (Individual) 10%

&#8226; Group Project Paper 20%

Exams: 30%

&#8226; Final exam 30%

+/- 10% The instructors can change the final mark depending on the quantity/quality of interventions of the student both in class, in the on-line forums and with ideas presented in the out of class work.

Evaluation criteria: In the case of each element clear guidelines will be given on what is expected from each presentation, negotiation or exercise so the students know what they will have to do to get maximum points.

In its second and following rounds of evaluations (in the case that the student misses or fails the first round) 100% of the qualification will be a result of an exam which could be a multiple choice and/or an essay and in a format that will be announced with sufficient time beforehand.
